Former Congressman Joseph P. Kennedy II unveils Dorchester health center's new name

DORCHESTER, MA- DotHouse Health celebrated its official name change and ribbon cutting ceremony Tuesday Afternoon at their Dorchester facility. Former Congressman Joseph P. Kennedy II officiated the ribbon cutting.

President and CEO Walter Ramos explains; "Our name change signifies a clearer reflection of what we do; we keep you well. It further establishes our role as a valued neighborhood resource, dedicated to providing access to high-quality, affordable healthcare and recreational opportunities in the Dorchester community."

It marked an important milestone in our health center's 128 year history including remarks from keynote speaker former Congressman Joseph P. Kennedy II.

"This institution took in thousands of families" said former Congressman Joseph P. Kennedy II on DotHouse Health.

This was a milestone event in our 128 year history as a Dorchester institution. The ceremony was held in the Health Center's gymnasium and was attended by over 200 employees, elected officials, civic associations, donors and business partners.

ABOUT DOTHOUSE HEALTH

DotHouse Health is a federally qualified health center located in the Fields Corner neighborhood of Dorchester. DotHouse Health has provided essential healthcare, social services and wellness opportunities to the community for over 40 years. At DotHouse Health we know that the health disparities in our community cannot be addressed through the treatment of individual, medically based issues alone. As such, we offer our over 23,000 patients extensive case management, financial and legal services as well as a number of community programs. By connecting our patients with comprehensive primary care, social services and in-house programs – all under one roof – we support the overall good health of our patients and build a stronger and healthier community.
